Bring your trickiest wardrobe pieces or any items you're wondering about and I'll help you let them go if they're no longer serving you or give them new life by giving you helpful styling suggestions. You will also learn how to dress to accentuate your body type and feel amazing in your clothes. Our gracious host, Cecelia, of Vocabulary boutique, is offering a 20% discount for your shopping pleasure afterwards.

Anna Neimark is a San Diego-based style expert and speaker, empowering people with confidence, one outfit at a time. Anna provides one-on-one styling services that leave her clients confident, loving themselves, with their outward representation a match for who they really are.
